

Concerning FASCINATING days ahead ...

Short and to the point: This web page highlights specific events listed on our "Biblical Synthesis" page – showing our CURRENT (as of January of this year) cultural setting. This is our Where We Are on the Prophetic Calendar page.

[Click Here for our FAQ site, a site bringing most helpful clarification concerning details about the end time view called The Final Trumpet Rapture Gathering.]

For helpful insight as to additional information RE: End Times Today, Click Here. For helpful insight as to what is soon to take place – End Times Tomorrow – Click Here.

On to the focus of this important web information:

We came down to two options for this page.

1. Highlight each specific event only AFTER it occurs (that is, post the event on this page after the event takes place)
- OR
2. Post each event NOW with the understanding site visitors will carefully read the titles for each event highlighted on the PDF pages (the links entered immediately under the specific event). In this option, the BOLD blue highlights (below) indicate the proximity of the events to our PRESENT DAY while the PDF documents below the event entry outline additional prophetic details once the specific featured event occurs.

We've decided to post all the highlighted events NOW so that, 1) it's evidentially clear the Bible offers True insight on future things and so that, 2) readers can better understand what is coming next by way of Bible prophecy fulfillment. In other words, we've decided to go with the second option. Please read the titles and the BOLD dark blue-colored notations carefully.

These documents especially highlight events of Daniel's 70th Week while also going on to include important New Testament prophetic events. As of January, 2026, Here's what's coming ... (NB: The following will change as time progresses given the nature of this beast – that is, as events unfold, chart info changes.)
