

Another's Devotional #6

Copying & sharing this devotional blog with others is encouraged.

My wife and I felt privileged to give out (to our wedding ceremony guests) The One Year Book of Bible Prayers almost 25 years ago. It is a devotional filled with encouragement for the readers. This month we're highlighting yet another entry. Recall: This year (2026) we are featuring God's wonderful quality of faithfulness. God's faithfulness to His promises to us brings genuine seekers needed encouragement! Enjoy. Be edified.

Praising God's Faithfulness [The devotional read for January 31]

I will sing of the tender mercies of the Lord forever! Young and old will hear of your faithfulness. Your unfailing love will last forever. Your faithfulness is as enduring as the heavens. Psalm 89:1, 2 [NLT]

Early in David's reign, God promised David that his dynasty and his kingdom would "continue for all time" (2 Samuel 7:16). This prayer of Ethan reminds us how God had begun to fulfill his promises to David. This was evidence to Ethan of God's "unfailing love"—a love that would last forever and forever.

Jesus Christ has fulfilled God's promise to David. Jesus Christ—a descendant of David through his earthly father Joseph—was raised from the dead so he could rule at the right hand of God the Father (Mark 14:61, 62 ; Acts 5:29-32). And the Lord has mercifully included us in his kingdom. Reflect on God's faithfulness to you through Christ.

Dear Lord, thank you for your unfailing love ...

Our God's loving kindness to us should melt our hearts. His faithful mercies are more than abundant. And aren't we thankful for that! This issue of God withholding from us that which we deserve is one of the most applied mercy actions in all of Scripture. That He is willing to forgive us our sins as we confess them to Him is amazing. "Lord, thank You for Your generous mercies, ones that are new every morning. All praise and honor to Your holy name. And Lord, please help me to honor You in BOTH confessing and repenting my sins. In Jesus Christ's name we pray, amen."

For helpful encouragement during these more challenging days, please ponder the following Truths & Promises which God has mercifully given to us – His end of days children in Christ:
