

Contemplating God's Glorious FAITHFULNESS

During This Beautiful Fall Season (4th draft of 5)

Approach: This is a “social media blog.” What I mean by that is this:

This post incorporates one dynamic of social media – others participate in the writing of the post (in this case, THIS article) – while at the same time posting the growing drafts as one blog. Please email your contributions to this document so we can ADD your comments to this God-honoring effort. Email us at email@endmin.org.

So here we go ... [Color = January entries ; Color = April entries ; Color = July entries ; Color = October entries]

God is faithful to Himself – His whole character; His whole being.

Ponder that for a bit.

- ~ He is faithful to His eternal nature. He is faithful to His loving nature. His is faithful to Truth.
- ~ Quality of love is manifest through action. Concerning Jesus Christ's death: “Greater love love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends.” John 15:13
- ~ God's faithful quality of MERCY is beyond our understanding – the best of the best. Please take time to ponder Psalms 32, 51 & 103 & Isaiah 55:8, 9.
- ~ The ESV translation of Psalm 117 reads: “Praise the LORD, all nations! Extol Him, all peoples! For great is His steadfast love toward us, and the faithfulness of the LORD endures forever. Praise the LORD!” (In honor and praise of God, the capitalizing of the pronouns is our doing.)

God is faithful to His Word and all the precious promises therein.

Ponder that for a bit.

- ~ He is faithful in what He says will unfold. He's faithful to His plan for man. He's a promise keeper.
- ~ God's generous revelation foretold many details of Christ's crucifixion. Here are two: “Not one of His bones shall be broken.” “They shall look upon Him whom they pierced.” John 19:36, 37
- ~ God's Word wonderfully outlines His faithful mercies: “It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is Thy faithfulness.” Lam. 3:22, 23 A response: We are grateful and we praise Thee, O God Most High!
- ~ The NKJV translation of Psalm 117 reads: “Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles! Laud Him, all you peoples! For His merciful kindness is great toward us, and the truth of the LORD endures forever. Praise the LORD!”

God is faithful to His Special Creation, mankind – His image in us being key. Ponder that for a bit.

- ~ He is faithful to man in His glorious rescue operation – delivering us from eternal darkness.
- ~ In being true to His kind, sacrificial faithfulness, God redeemed man out of eternal, dark bondage in the Lake of Fire IF we would but accept His gift by faith. Col. 1:13, 14 Salvation is available.
- ~ His faithfulness in forgiveness fosters a humble, grateful response. (See His precious Counsel to us in I John 1:8-10 & meditate on God's perspective concerning who we truly are.)
- ~ The NLT version of Psalm 117 reads: "Praise the LORD, all you nations. Praise Him, all you people of the earth. For He loves us with unfailing love; the faithfulness of the LORD endures forever. Praise the LORD!" (In honor and praise of God, the capitalizing of the pronouns is our doing.)

God is FAITHFUL. His mercies (including His tender, loving kindnesses) ENDURE forever. May God be praised as we apply Philippians 4:8 to God's wonderful FAITHFULNESS.

So where does this leave us?

May WE respond to our glorious Creator in ways that bring Him glory and which bring us blessing as we journey forward in sweet relationship with Him. May we always remember: Our God Most High has called His people to grow in Christ-likeness toward the more complete emulation of His glorious self. One mandate included in this conforming process is this: He calls us to be faithful to Him! With His help (John 15:4 ; Galatians 5:16), we can sure do a much better job than we are presently doing. Would you care to join me in this worthy call?

A little more about the makeup of this [eventual] 2-page blog ...

Because this is a growing blog, come back to this page next year – 2027. In this October edition, you can see what's been added. January's, April's and July's additions are also included in this draft. Lord willing, in January of 2027, you will find the final (complete) post. (This 2026-fluid approach in writing this blog assumes censorship will not prevent us from realizing our goal for this unusual piece of communal communication.) One closing word in this October post: For those of you who have contributed to the writing of the social blog to date, we extend a sincere word of thanks. It's been a JOY honoring our Lord together. ... "Oh, magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together." (Psalm 34:3 ; NKJV)
