

Another's Devotional #10

Copying & sharing this devotional blog with others is encouraged.

In seeking to further highlight our 2026 ministry theme – Faithfulness – we continue posting articles touching upon God's faithfulness and His call to us to be like Him. He desires us to be all that we can be. He calls us to be faithful too ... to Him. As we practically live out our devotion to our awesome loving God Most High, may this include emulation. God is honored as we follow His precious precepts found in His Holy Word, the Bible. Enjoy. Be edified.

Praising God For Keeping His Promises

[The devotional for August 16]

I will praise the Lord as long as I live. I will sing praises to my God even with my dying breath. Don't put your confidence in powerful people; there is no help for you there ... But happy are those who have the God of Israel as their helper, whose hope is in the Lord their God. He is the one who made heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them. He is the one who keeps every promise forever.
Psalm 146:2-3, 5-6 [NLT]

All of us have been let down by someone. A friend or family member may have broken an important promise. A respected church leader may have fallen into sin. Through these experiences, we learn that we can't depend completely on other people, because sometimes they don't follow through on their promises. The writer of this prayer calls upon people to put their confidence in God, not in other people, for the Lord is always faithful. The sky above and the earth below are tokens of God's unfailing love for his people. God is faithful to keep the world going for yet another day, and he will be faithful to care for his people.

Take a few minutes to render praise to God for being faithful to you.

Dear Lord, you are the one who keeps every promise forever ...

May the remainder of this year be filled with encouragement – blessings which come as a result of yielding to God whereby we THRIVE in our new lives in Christ. He sure extends needed comfort and protection in these dark days to those who ask, to those who seek, to those who knock. As we find ourselves enjoying His blessings, may we also regularly praise Him for His faithfulness to His gracious Word – including His promises – to us. יהוה God be praised!
